

Informations regarding the use of this website

1. Copyright

The internetpages belonging to this webpage, their contents either as a whole or in part, may only be viewed, copied and/or saved for private, non-commercial use. Their use is limited to the acquisition of information regarding the goods and services offered. Should the contents or results of the data in the website be transferred, used or circulated for anything other than private purposes, then this must firstly be approved by the publisher. The copyright for published objects created by the publisher himself remains with the publisher only. The processing, alteration or reproduction or use of such objects in other than electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the publisher's prior written approval. Copyright instructions and brand designations may not be altered or omitted.

2. References and Links

The installation of a hyperlink from other websites to sites belonging to this website also requires prior written approval from the publisher. If sites refer directly or indirectly to third-party internet sites outside of the publisher's range of responsibility, the publisher can only assume liability if he knew of their contents and it was technically possible and reasonable to prevent their use in such case as their contents were illegal. The publisher states that the respective linked third-party internet sites were of illegal content at the time of being linked. The publisher has absolutely no influence on the current and future structure and content of the linked third-party internet sites. Thus, the publisher now like to distance himself from all contents of all linked third-party internet sites which were changed after having been linked. The supplier of the linked third-party internet site assumes sole liability for illegal, inaccurate or incomplete content and particularly for damage caused by the use of such offered information, not the person or organisation who simply refers to the links to the respective publication.

3. Contents

The publisher accepts no responsibility for the actuality, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against the publisher caused by the use of the offered information or the use of inaccurate or incomplete information shall always be excluded. All offers and informations are subject to change and are without obligation. The publisher observes the right to alter, expand or delete parts or complete sites without extra notification or to stop publication temporarily or completely.

4. Data protection

Should the occasion arise in which personal or business data can be entered within the website, then these data are entered on a completely voluntary base of the user. With entering the data the user declares his/her approval for internal proceeding and saving the data by the publisher and/or his branch offices.

Cookies

To make this site work properly, we sometimes place small data files called cookies on your device. Most big websites do this too.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

How do we use cookies?

A number of our pages use cookies to remember:

- your display preferences, such as contrast colour settings or font size
- If you have agreed (or not) to our use of cookies on this site

Also, some videos embedded in our pages use a cookie to anonymously gather statistics on how you got there and what videos you visited.

Enabling these cookies is not strictly necessary for the website to work but it will provide you with a better browsing experience. You can delete or block these cookies, but if you do that some features of this site may not work as intended.

The cookie-related information is not used to identify you personally and the pattern data is fully under our control. These cookies are not used for any purpose other than those described here.

How to control cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish ? for details, see aboutcookies.org. You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work.
